My Dear Friends:

*Father, all powerful and ever-living God,
You created man in love to share your divine life.
We see this high destiny in the love of husband and wife,
Which bears the imprint of your own divine love.*

These words from the Preface of the Nuptial Mass remind us of the special nature of married love as designed by God and instituted as a Sacrament by Jesus Christ. They also provide an excellent starting point for reflection as you prepare to be married in the Catholic Church.

The time of your engagement and preparation for marriage is a very busy and exciting time for you. For most couples there are many arrangements and details that consume your time and attention. But in your preparation I hope that you won't forget the most important aspect of your marriage - the spiritual aspect.

As you prepare to receive the Sacrament of Matrimony, it is essential that you stay in close contact with the Church. Invite God into your lives as a special companion as you travel the road to marriage. Spend some extra time in prayer and reflection. Receive the sacraments of the Church, especially Confession and Holy Communion, as often as possible. And as you rejoice in all the blessing that God has given to you, don't forget all those in the world, in our own community, who are not as blessed, not as fortunate as we are! Charity should be the hallmark of your Christian lives together.

Please be assured of a special remembrance in my prayers. May your wedding be joyful and memorable. May your marriage be faithful and holy, a true inspiration to the Christian community. And may God bless you with His finest gifts now, and in the days and years to come!

Sincerely yours,

Thomas J. Tobin
Bishop of Providence

Parish Based Programs

This program, given by a team of trained married couples and a priest or deacon, provides an opportunity for engaged couples to explore fundamental areas of love, marriage, and family life essential to a lasting Christian marriage. Life experiences are presented for consideration to give couples a sense of the real process of understanding each other more deeply. Exercises complement the ideas presented, and help to stimulate dialogue.

Topics include: communication, family of origin, finance, personality, sacramentality, spirituality, a sexuality component which includes a brief overview of Natural Family Planning and a session about planning your wedding liturgy.

➤ Program dates & locations are listed on pages 5 through 7 ◀

Natural Family Planning (NFP)

NFP is a cooperative method of achieving or avoiding pregnancy through the observation and use of normally occurring signs in a woman's cycle. Unlike artificial methods, both partners share the responsibility of conception. Drugs, devices and surgery are not used. It fosters respect and acceptance of the total person by teaching couples the nature of fertility. NFP of Rhode Island is a non-sectarian, educational program which offers information and referrals to a variety of certified NFP instructors in Rhode Island.

Couples are drawn to NFP because it is medically safe and effective. Those who are ecologically aware see NFP as a logical extension of their concern about their psychological and physical environment. Marriages are enriched through a mutual understanding of the shared responsibility for family planning creating a deeper appreciation for the value of life.

Fees: vary by instructors

Planificación Familiar Natural (PFN)

La Planificación Familiar Natural (PFN) es un método cooperativo para alcanzar o evitar embarazos con la observación y el uso de signos que normalmente ocurren durante el ciclo menstrual de una mujer. Para evitar un embarazo, la planificación familiar natural requiere abstinencia periódica durante el tiempo fértil. Las drogas, los dispositivos y la cirugía no se utilizan. Promueve la aceptación total de la persona al enseñar a las parejas la naturaleza de la fertilidad. PFN de Rhode Island es un programa educativo sin afiliación religiosa que ofrece información y refiere a un grupo de instructores certificados de PFN en el estado.

Las parejas se inclinan por la PFN porque es medicamento segura y efectiva. Aquellos con conciencia ecológica ven la PFN como una extensión de su preocupación por su ambiente físico y psicológico. La PFN es moralmente aceptable por gente de cualquier religión. Los matrimonios se enriquecen mutuamente al comprender y compartir la responsabilidad en la planeación familiar creando una más profunda apreciación del valor de la vida humana.
